WEST HARTFORD, CONN. – The Carol Autorino Center for the Arts and Humanities at the University of Saint Joseph presents the Navarasa Dance Theatre on Wednesday, February 27 at 7:30 p.m. The performance will be held in The Bruyette Athenaeum's Hoffman Auditorium located on the University's West Hartford campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue. Reserved Seating, advanced tickets $20 Adult, $15 Senior Citizen, $5 Youth, and $10 Member. Tickets available online at tickets.usj.edu or call the Frances Driscoll Box Office at 860.231.5555.

Navarasa Dance Theater (NDT) has a wide repertoire of solo and group works in classical and contemporary dance and theater. Inspired by Indian classical and folk dance forms, theater (both Western and Indian), world music, martial arts (Kalarippayattu), aerial dance, yoga, live singing and storytelling, NDT's work is dynamic, radical, and original style of dance theater.

NDT is known for its shows with themes that deal with human issues in a meaningful way that makes audiences enjoy and be touched at the same time. Presented with wonderful comic timing, innovative and stylistic choreography, NDT draws audiences from different backgrounds connect to the work both at an individual and collective level.

“Not only a fusing of dance and theatre, but an explosive fusion of cultures that stunned the audience with its complexity and beauty!” - Times of India

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master’s and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University’s two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
