Women to Women: Living Longer, Living Smarter by AARP Connecticut
Program Offered to Help Women Plan for Their Future

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. – The Office of Alumni Relations at the University of Saint Joseph (USJ) presents the Mercy Lecture Series, Women to Women: Living Longer, Living Smarter, a program to help participants plan for the future, Tuesday, February 18th at 11:30 a.m. The lecture, sponsored by AARP Connecticut, will be held on the University's campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue, at Mercy Hall in Crystal Room.

AARP Connecticut presenters will take participants on a journey using helpful tools, information and discussion on four topic areas: Your Home & Community; Your Finances; Your Health; and Your Wishes. The lecture will address the question: Where you see yourself in the future and how will you get there? Participants will be able to discuss how to make a plan with a range of choices to help them be in charge of decisions that affect them; and how to share that plan with family and friends.

The program will begin with lunch at 11:30 a.m., followed by the presentation at Noon. The cost is $25 and pre-registration is strongly encouraged. To register or for more information, contact the Alumni Relations Office at alumni@usj.edu or 860.231.5323.

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
