WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (January 29, 2014) – The Carol Autorino Center for the Arts and Humanities at the University of Saint Joseph presents a spring semester performance featuring energetic world dance. The Duquesne University Tamburitzans will perform on Saturday, February 22 at 2:30 p.m.

America's longest-running multicultural song and dance company, the Duquesne University Tamburitzans is a unique ensemble of talented young folk artists dedicated to the performance and preservation of the music, songs, and dances of Eastern Europe and neighboring folk cultures. With colorful music, spectacular dancing and costumes, the Tamburitzans present an entertaining, high-energy performance for all ages!

The performance will be held in The Bruyette Athenaeum's Hoffman Auditorium located on the University's West Hartford campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue. Reserved seating, $30; Adults, $25; Senior citizen and youth, $15. Tickets available online at tickets.usj.edu or through the Frances Driscoll Box Office at 860.231.5555.

*The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions.
