University of Saint Joseph Presents Governor Malloy with Framed Degree and Citation

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (November 25, 2013) – Administrators and trustees from the University of Saint Joseph visited Governor Malloy at his legislative office on November 21 to present him with a framed copy of his honorary degree and citation. Governor Malloy was honored at the University's 2012 commencement and received an honorary doctorate of humane letters. The framed degree represents the institution's change from Saint Joseph College to the University of Saint Joseph and celebrates the Governor's service to the State of Connecticut.

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
