MERCY LECTURE SERIES

Women: Vital Voices in the Global Economy

Shyamala Raman, Ph.D.,

Director of International Studies and Professor of Economics and International Studies

University of Saint Joseph

March 4, 2014 at 11:30 a.m.

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. (March, 4, 2014) – Some of the latest research on women’s empowerment will be shared at University of Saint Joseph’s Mercy Lecture Series, Women: Vital Voices in a Global Economy, presented by Shyamala Raman, Ph.D., USJ director of International Studies and professor of Economics and International Studies. The event will be held on March 4, 2014 with lunch at 11:30 a.m., followed by the lecture at noon in the Crystal Room of Mercy Hall on the University’s West Hartford campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue.

Using a wide range of examples from around the world, Professor Raman will explain the role of women as change agents in the areas of sustainability, entrepreneurship and alternative approaches to economic growth.

The Mercy Lecture Series is sponsored by the Office of Alumni Relations to offer alumni and the community exclusive, thought-provoking lectures on diverse topics of the day.

The cost of the lecture is $25. To register, visit www.usj.edu, or contact the Alumni Relations Office at alumni@usj.edu or 860.231.5323.

###

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, visit our website at www.usj.edu.
