Summer Courses at the University of Saint Joseph

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. – The University of Saint Joseph is offering an extensive schedule of summer courses from its undergraduate, graduate, and adult learner programs. Courses are open to students from other universities and encompass a variety of academic disciplines. Enrollment is currently underway; summer session courses are scheduled to run from May 13-August 9.

Classes are offered during the day and evening and in a variety of formats including in class, online, and hybrid (a blend on in class and online). All courses are taught by University of Saint Joseph professors and many are offered at a reduced rate.

For more information, or to enroll, visit www.usj.edu/summer2013.

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
