WEST HARTFORD, CONN. - The University of Saint Joseph will present the 2014 Munger Lecture, featuring “Wrapped in Mystery: Exploring the Consciousness of Narrative Space and the Eye of the Imagination,” presented by Dr. Myrtle Power, Ph.D., professor at Saint Paul University in Ottawa, Canada. The Lecture will be held on Monday, March 3, 2014 at 7:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall, Crystal Room, at the University’s West Hartford Campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue. Admission is free and open to the general public.

A professor of Religious Education, Dr. Power also directs the Faculty of Theology’s Summer Institutes in Religious Education and Pastoral Liturgy. She worked for the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB) in the National Office of Religious Education, where she led the portfolio for the development of religious education resources for use in Catholic schools, parishes, and homes throughout Canada. Her areas of research include narrative theology, applied hermeneutics, and the aesthetics of teaching and learning.

About the Munger Lecture:

The Munger Lecture, established by Mary V. Munger, a University of Saint Joseph alumna who earned a B.A. in Mathematics in 1939, series invites a guest lecturer to campus to address a topic or issue in contemporary ethics.

###

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master’s and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University’s two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, visit our website at www.usj.edu.
