WEST HARTFORD, CONN. - Anthony Sullo and Gary Gello, owners of Joey's Pizza Pie in West Hartford, offer their support to Diane Morton, director of The School for Young Children at the University of Saint Joseph, for The School's annual spring fundraiser to be held Saturday, April 6 at 6:00 p.m. Joey's Pizza Pie is a lead donor supporting the event, which will raise funds for The School's scholarship and arts programs. The School for Young Children, located at 238 Steele Road, West Hartford, Conn., is a nationally accredited preschool serving children age 3-5 through part- and full-day programs, including summer camps. For more on the fundraiser or the School call 860.231.5560.

###

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
