WEST HARTFORD, CONN. – The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) recently hosted a black-tie gala, “Imagine ... the Sky’s the Limit,” at the Connecticut Convention Center in downtown Hartford on Friday, June 21, 2013. The event honored the Most Reverend Henry J. Mansell, D.D., Hartford’s Archbishop who recently celebrated his 50th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. In addition, three women in service to others who are USJ alumni were commemorated: Beth Fischer, RSM, ’76, The Wellness Center; Bonnie Gauthier M’85, Hebrew Health Care; and Molly Rees Gavin ’71, Connecticut Community Care, Inc. The Honorable Dannel P. Malloy and Cathy Malloy served as honorary co-chairs of the event which featured a cocktail reception, dinner, silent auction and dancing to the music of Shaded Soul. Proceeds from the gala will benefit the Pope Pius XII Library Renovation Fund at USJ. Pictured here enjoying the festivities are (left to right): University of Saint Joseph President Pamela Trotman Reid, Ph.D.; the Most Reverend Henry J. Mansell, D.D.; and Jeanne Merola, chair of the USJ Board of Trustees and Senior Vice President at Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company.

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
