You've Earned a Say on the Future of Medicare & Social Security at the University of Saint Joseph

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. (February 22, 2013) – The Office of Alumni Relations at the University of Saint Joseph (USJ) presents the Mercy Lecture Series (formerly Lunch & Learn) led by outstanding members of our faculty and professionals from our alumni community. On Tuesday, March 5, 2013, join members of AARP CT for an interactive discussion to provide you the straight talk about current Medicare and Social Security proposals being discussed in Washington, D.C. The program begins with lunch at 11:00 a.m. followed by the presentation at 11:40 a.m. in Mercy Hall, Crystal Room, located on the university's West Hartford campus at 1678 Asylum Avenue. The community is cordially invited to join USJ alumni and friends at this event:

- Admission is $25 per person; registration is strongly encouraged.
- Registration deadline is Friday, March 1- contact Stephen Kumnick, manager of the Annual Fund & Alumni Relations, at 860-231-5323 or alumni@usj.edu.

Over the last several months, we've heard a lot of different ideas about how to strengthen Medicare and Social Security. But are Washington politicians listening to you?

Get the facts—the pros and cons, without the spin or political jargon—so you can make up your own mind about what the options mean to you and your families. Don't leave the future of Social Security and Medicare in the hands of Washington politicians and backroom budget deals. Get the latest scoop and have your say!

###

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 22 majors and six pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
