USJ SCHOOL OF PHARMACY TO OFFER FREE PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN PHARMACY CAREERS

“Exploring Diversity in Pharmacy”

Saturday, March 7, 2015

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (February 11, 2015) – The School of Pharmacy at the University of Saint Joseph is hosting a free, co-educational program for high school and college students interested in careers in pharmacy. “Exploring Diversity in Pharmacy” will take place on Saturday, March 7 from 9:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the University’s School of Pharmacy, located at 229 Trumbull Street in Hartford.

The half-day event will feature three sessions:

- Careers in Pharmacy — a panel discussion led by professional pharmacists and faculty
- A Compounding Experiment in the Pharmacy Lab, where participants will make lip balm
- An interactive lecture and group activity that explore cultural remedies from around the world

A continental breakfast and lunch will be served. Participation in the program is free, but reservations are required. To register, visit www.usj.edu/ExplorePharmacy. For more information, contact Dr. Jennifer Luciano at 860.231.2017 or jluciano@usj.edu.

###

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master’s and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University’s two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 25 majors and seven pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
