OUT & ABOUT

KeyBank employees making a difference in the community

KeyBank recently hosted its 28th annual Neighbors Make the Difference Day. KeyBank employees spent an afternoon volunteering with community organizations and service projects, including the Rebuilding Together project in Manchester that helped to rehabilitate the homes of low-income residents. Nearly 7,000 KeyBank employees from across the country received paid time off to volunteer in the neighborhoods where they live and work — completing more than 800 community service projects and totaling an estimated 28,000 volunteer hours in a single day. Pictured are volunteers at the Rebuilding Together project in Manchester.

St. Bernard Drama Club stages baseball musical 'It's a Hit'

The St. Bernard School Drama Club (grades 5-8) recently presented the musical "It's a Hit," featuring singing baseball fans from kindergarten through 6th grade. The lively production was directed by faculty members Amy Kundrat and April Stich, with musical direction by Beth Ann Surapine, below right. The students, below, sported their favorite baseball jerseys and caps, and performed songs such as "Play Ball," "You're at Bat," "Strike Zone," and "All Stars."

St. Joseph president takes part in women's program

University of Saint Joseph President Rhona Free recently served as a panelist at Women in the Lead, an event sponsored by Murtha Cullina LLP. Women in the Lead is part of the law firm's Women Expanding Business (WEB) — an initiative to encourage and promote women within the firm and in the legal and business community. The panel spoke to over 100 of Murtha Cullina's clients and contacts, discussing a series of questions related to mentoring, advancement, and decision-making. Pictured is the panel, seated from left: Jennifer Widness, Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges; Free; Tracey LeMay, Masonicare; and Margaret Flinter, Community Health Center Inc. Standing is Suzanne Brown Walsh, a partner at Murtha Cullina and event moderator.

STCC graduates honored with architecture award

On May 31, Springfield Technical Community College graduates Obed Otabil and Asra Afzaal — from Ghana and Pakistan respectively — were honored with the Architecture and Building Technology Faculty Award, which is given to seniors who have demonstrated the greatest academic characteristics, creativity, and professional motivation to pursue a successful career in architecture and building technology. They received their degrees later that day at STCC's 51st commencement. Pictured from left are Otabil, Afzaal, and Warren Hall, chair of the Architecture and Building Technology program at STCC.
