B.S., HEALTH SCIENCE

WHY CHOOSE HEALTH SCIENCE?

USJ’s innovative Health Science program offers two tracks for students pursuing a career in the health care field: General and Direct-Entry Physician Assistant (PA). For those interested in becoming a PA, the seven-semester program prepares them for success in USJ’s graduate PA Studies program, while those interested in non-clinical, health-related professions select the General track to gain the background they need to thrive in their field.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates of USJ’s Health Science program have the knowledge necessary to serve in numerous facets of the health care field, including:

» Health Care Education

» Health Care Coordination

» Health Care Communication

» Marketing Assistant in insurance companies, non-profit organizations, and hospitals

Interdisciplinary major for students interested in health care professions

Research and internship opportunities available

Preparation for a variety of careers or graduate school programs
