WHY CHOOSE USJ FOR TEACHER LICENSURE?

For individuals interested in making a difference in children’s lives, USJ’s Master of Arts in Teaching degree creates a clear path to obtain initial teacher licensure and a master’s degree simultaneously. College graduates looking to make a career change thrive in the University’s renowned Education program, where they prepare to help their future students succeed in a changing global society.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

With a Master of Arts in Teaching, graduates become ideal candidates in a competitive job market. By gaining the valuable skillset necessary to achieve the career of their dreams USJ graduates are fully equipped to make an impact in the lives of their students.

CERTIFICATES

» Comprehensive Special Education, M.A.T.
» Early Childhood/Special Education, M.A.T
» Elementary Education (w/literacy focus), M.A.T.
» Secondary Education, M.A.T.

Classes taught by faculty, not graduate assistants

Dedicated Special Education Department with on-campus lab school for K-12 classroom experience

Evening classes designed for working professionals
ACADEMIC DISTINCTIVENESS

In USJ’s Master of Art in Teaching program, students combine coursework, internships, and experiential learning, preparing them to:

» Understand and apply learning theories as they relate to a holistic curriculum

» Become a lifelong, independent learner and reflective practitioner

» Teach students effectively in a constructivist and collaborative manner using evidence-based practices

» Challenge their thinking, enrich their professional practices, and deepen their ability to impact student learning

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

TO GET STARTED, SUBMIT:

» A completed application at www.usj.edu/apply

» $50 application fee

» Official transcript from all undergraduate institutions attended

» Two letters of recommendation

» Program essay

www.usj.edu/apply