WHY CHOOSE NUTRITION?

Nutritionists and dietitians are among some of the fastest growing careers in the nation. Undergraduates interested in specialty areas, such as health promotion, can select the Nutrition and Wellness track, while those interested in completing a post-bachelor’s dietetic internship can choose the Didactic track. In addition to the online graduate M.S. in Nutrition program and online Health Coaching Certificate, USJ offers a one-year, on-campus dietetic internship program for individuals with a bachelor’s degree in Nutrition.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Using their focus on preventative nutrition, education, and wellness, graduates serve the community at a wide range of organizations, including:
