WHY CHOOSE USJ? We're a University with Values and Value

The University of Saint Joseph in Connecticut engages students with a rigorous liberal arts and professional education based on a proven track record of empowering students to succeed and lead. You can select from an array of dynamic majors and minors, dual majors, and concentrations, and then proceed to realize your ambitions. Experiential learning is incorporated across the curriculum and faculty prepare students for meaningful professional careers. Seamless degree programs save time and money, and build the foundation for a great career as many degree programs lead to professional licenses. We link the classroom to the real world. At the University of Saint Joseph, education extends beyond the classroom through high-impact learning. Amidst textbooks and lectures, students complete internships, clinical rotations, and pre-professional experiences effectively applying course material to everyday situations and gaining experience that will help them rise above stiff competition in the job market.
