Richard S. Sych Joins
University of Saint Joseph's Actuarial Advisory Board

BLOOMFIELD, CONN., June 13, 2019 – Hooker & Holcombe, a regional leader in employer-based actuarial, investment advisory and retirement plan consulting, today announced that Richard S. Sych, FCS, FSA, MAAA, president and consulting actuary, has been elected Advisory Board Coordinator to the University of Saint Joseph (USJ) Actuarial Advisory Board.

The University's Actuarial Advisory Board is a group of actuarial professionals with extensive industry experience and a broad range of exposure to industry standards and hiring practices. Its mission is to help the University keep current with the latest developments in the actuarial field to keep the program strong and vibrant. The Board advises the program about internship opportunities for students and connects students with practicing actuaries through mentoring initiatives. "The Advisory Board is an invaluable resource in identifying opportunities to enhance USJ's ability to produce competitive actuarial graduates as well as promoting the reputation and visibility of the program. We are thrilled to welcome Rich as the Advisory Board Coordinator and look forward to working with him as we continue to enhance educational and career opportunities for our students," noted Ekaterina Lioutikova, Associate Professor, Department Chair, Mathematical Sciences Department of USJ.

"The Advisory Board helps actuarial students prepare for the challenges of entering the work place by finding the right fit for them," said Richard S. Sych, president of Hooker & Holcombe. "I'm honored to lead a team of professionals dedicated to advancing this worthwhile cause."
