UNIVERSITY OF SAINT JOSEPH HOMESCHOOL ACADEMY TO HOLD SPRING SEMESTER OPEN HOUSE

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (Nov. 8, 2016) – The University of Saint Joseph will hold an Open House for its Homeschool Academy on Wednesday, Nov. 16, 2016 at 2:30 p.m. in Room 200 of McDonough Hall on the West Hartford campus.

The Open House will offer information about USJ's unique program, which provides homeschool students aged 12-17 the opportunity to experience rigorous academic courses in a college setting with a group of their peers. Attendees will hear about this unique experience directly from currently enrolled students and their parents, and will have the opportunity to observe one of the fall semester classes.

The USJ Homeschool Academy, which began this semester, will offer courses in U.S. History and Earth and Environmental Science during the spring semester, starting in January 2017.

Those interested in attending the Open House can register at <http://www.usj.edu/academics/special-programs/usj-homeschool-academy/open-house-registration/>

The University of Saint Joseph (USJ) offers a wide range of graduate, undergraduate, and certificate programs that combine a professional and liberal arts education with a focus on service. Coeducational graduate master's and doctoral degree programs are taught on the University's two campuses in West Hartford and Hartford, Connecticut; at off-campus locations throughout the state; and online. Undergraduate programs for women and for coeducational adult students take place on our beautiful suburban campus and include more than 25 majors and seven pre-professional programs, each of which provides personal attention in a caring environment. Founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy, the University of Saint Joseph welcomes students from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. To learn more, view our website at www.usj.edu.
